

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information, contact:

Tracey Munson, Director of Marketing
Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum
410-745-4960
tmunson@cbmm.org

NEWS RELEASE

(ST MICHAELS, MD – November 22, 2010)

George Hatcher, Jr. joins CBMM

George Hatcher, Jr. of Easton has been named director of advancement and visitor services for the Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum (CBMM) in St. Michaels, Maryland.

Hatcher's responsibilities include overseeing the membership, development and visitor service activities of the Museum. George brings more than 25 years executive management experience to his position, which most recently includes his tenure at Easton Ford and Norris Ford of Easton.

Hatcher earned his bachelor's degree in electrical engineering with distinction from the University of Virginia before serving in the aerospace industry earlier on in his career. His community involvement includes serving as secretary and past-president of the Rotary Club of Easton as well as co-chair of the Next 50 Years Committee of Sts. Peter and Paul High School in Easton. He is a charter member and past president of the Chesapeake Bay T's and for 21 years has served as the host of WCEI's Standards radio show, which airs Saturday mornings.

Through educational, cultural and interactive exhibits and activities, CBMM celebrates the connections between the Bay and its people while inspiring an understanding of and appreciation for the rich maritime heritage of the Chesapeake Bay and its tidal reaches. The Museum's campus includes ten exhibit buildings on 18 waterfront acres along the St. Michaels Harbor. Reach Hatcher at 410-745-4978 or ghatcher@cbmm.org.