Free Delmarva resident admission to CBMM December 26-29

Free admission to the St. Michaels waterfront campus of the Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum (CBMM) is being offered to Delmarva residents during the Museum's December 26-29 Delmarva Days program.

During the four days, free admission will be given to residents showing their Delmarva address on a piece of identification or mail. The Delmarva region includes the entire state of Delaware and the Eastern Shores of Maryland and Virginia. General admission is otherwise free for museum members and kids under 6, or $13 for adults, $10 for seniors, and $6 for children 6-17.

"We're happy to offer free admission to Delmarva residents," commented Visitor Services Team Leader Katie Willis. "We love sharing the heritage, the legacy, and the stories of the Chesapeake with our neighbors."

The museum features a floating fleet of historic vessels, the 1879 Hooper Strait Lighthouse, and many hands-on exhibits that share the stories of how people live, work, and play along the Bay. The museum is open 10am to 4pm daily, except Christmas and New Year's Day. For more information, visit the museum in St. Michaels, online at www.cbmm.org, or call 410-745-2916.
