

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(ST MICHAELS, MD – July 20, 2011)

CBMM store hosts Chamber ribbon cutting

The Talbot County Chamber of Commerce ambassador group helped celebrate the renovation of the Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum's store in St. Michaels with a ribbon cutting during the store's July 14 open house reception.

Pictured from left: Talbot County Chamber of Commerce CEO and President Al Silverstein; Chamber Ambassador Debbie Wilkens; Chem Dry On-The-Shore's Vance Morris, CBMM Store Clerk Maggie Robar, Ron Sasiela (partially hidden); CBMM Store Clerk Pam White; CBMM Store Manager Marty Smythe; CBMM Store Clerk Victoria Alexander; EZLocal.com's Harris Max; CBMM President Langley Shook; Chamber Ambassador Jonathan West and CBMM Store Clerk Gloria Condrell.

Open 7 days a week from 9am to 6pm, the museum store was recently remodeled and merchandised to include museum-related and maritime gifts. Proceeds from the store benefit the children and adults served by the non-profit museum. For more information, visit the store just outside the museum's welcome center in St. Michaels, online at www.cbmm.org, or call 410-745-4962.

###